Sickness, Holidays, Bank Holidays, and Inset Days - Where a child is absent for more than two weeks, the Provider must notify the Family Information Service (Informed families).

**Childcare", as defined in section 18 of the 2006 Act, specifically excludes care provided for a child by a parent, stepparent, foster parent (or other relative) or by a person who fosters the child privately or has parental responsibility for the child. Government funding cannot be claimed by childminders providing childcare for their own child or a related child.

Attendance and declaration by parents/guardians (please tick the below relevant boxes)

- I confirm that my child is accessing and attending the named below provider for their Early Years childcare entitlement of 15 or 30 hours per week (pending eligibility).
- I confirm that my child is not a relative to the childminder stated above
- I understand that I can only claim up to 15 hours or up to 30 hours per week (pending eligibility) of funded childcare for my child.
- I understand my child may lose their funded place if they do not attend regularly without a satisfactory reason provided for their absence.
- I declare that my child receives no funded childcare, other than that which is stated on this form, and is not registered at a School (Reception Class).
- I declare the table above is correct and understand that if any details change the Parental and Legal Responsibility Declaration for the Funding Entitlement Form must be updated.

Additional charges - The entitlement funding is intended to deliver 15 or 30 hours a week of free, high quality, flexible early education and care. The 15 or 30 hours must be able to be accessed free of charge to parents; that is, there must not be any mandatory charges for parents in relation to the funding entitlement hours.

Government funding is not intended to cover the costs of meals, other consumables, additional hours or additional services. Providers can charge for consumables, meals and snacks, extra activities and additional hours provided they are not mandatory charges or a condition of accessing a place.

The costs of chargeable extras should be published on provider websites or, where they do not have any website, on local authority Family Information Services. These should be clear, up-to-date and easily accessible to parents, to enable parents to make an informed choice of provider.
