

Reasonable Adjustments

The Equalities Act 2010 says

‘public sector’ organizations (like the Council or NHS) have to change how they work so that they are as accessible to disabled people as well as everybody else.

These are called ‘Reasonable adjustments’.

Mencap have made this leaflet about Reasonable Adjustments

It can be helpful to write these things down

We have made a blank reasonable adjustments record you can use – see below.

See Ability have made this simple booklet you can download and complete about extra support you need at an appointment

If you are going to hospital, you can record your reasonable adjustments in your hospital passport.

The Misfits Theatre Company made this film about the importance of reasonable adjustments for NHS Health Improvements

My Reasonable Adjustment

My Name

My Date of Birth

Appointment where I need the Adjustment

What to do to help the appointment go well

What not to do to prevent the appointment going badly

Any notes from the appointment or further actions.

ENFIELD Council
NHS North London NHS Foundation Trust
Photosymbols®
Professional Licence 246556557