Subject: RE: Signed Declaration of Compliance London Borough Of Enfield

Hello David, (cc Jane),

Thank you for your revised London Borough of Enfield (EADM040) SEA Declaration form dated 22nd February 2023.

I can confirm that your software upgrade (to version 2.0 release B) & revised details of your cameras & locations, (total is now 9 cameras at any of 10 possible locations) for your SEA RoadFlow system at the London Borough of Enfield is accepted as a "Minor" change as is described in the "The Certification of Approved Devices" (CoAD) guidance Section 2.2.3. Therefore, your Acknowledgement for the enforcement of Bus Lanes under SEA manufacturers Certification remains valid.

Your declaration form also refers to Bus Lane enforcement under the London Local Authorities Act 1996;
Approval for Bus Lane enforcement under the London Local Authorities Act 1996 is added to your Acknowledgement from the effective date of the letter referred to below.

You will receive a more formal EADM040 acknowledgement letter confirming this soon, (effective from 13th March 2023).
(Please note: EADM040 includes & replaces PADM040 and/or BLADM041)

This confirmation should be retained safely as it is part of your Certification record.

Regards
