

Frequently asked questions

How can I find out which nursery class my child has been offered?

If you applied online you will need to log onto your eAdmissions account at www.eadmissions.org.uk. You also use your eAdmissions account to accept the place that your child has been offered.

The outcomes will be published after 7 pm on 24 April 2024. You will receive an email or text advising you to log onto your eAdmissions account.

Where can I find my child's waiting list positions?

If you email the Admission Service at esas@enfield.gov.uk giving your child's application reference number or their name and date of birth, we can email information about your child's waiting list position.

How often will my child's waiting list position change?

There will not be any changes to the waiting lists until after 13 May 2024 at the earliest. After this time changes can happen every couple of weeks.

Where can I find a list of schools with vacancies that I can apply for now?

There is a list of schools currently with vacancies on the website at this link https://www.enfield.gov.uk/_data/assets/pdf_file/0016/57022/Admission-to-nursery-2024-vacancies-Education.pdf. Please note that some schools may only have one of two places available. The admissions criteria will be used to decide which children are offered the places. Again, the list of schools will not change until after 13 May 2024.

I have changed my mind; can I now apply for a different nursery class for my child to attend?

You can apply for an alternative school by completing a NR2 form. This can be downloaded from https://www.enfield.gov.uk/_data/assets/pdf_file/0019/57007/Application-for-nursery-2024-NR2-form-Education.pdf and once completed emailed to esas@enfield.gov.uk. If you are unable to download an NR2 form you can email but please make sure you include your child's name, date of birth and list clearly the schools you wish to apply for in priority order.

How can I accept the place for my child?

You can accept the place offered to your child by logging into your eAdmissions account at www.eadmissions.org.uk.

I have forgotten my password for the eAdmissions, how can I find this?

If you go to www.eadmissions.org.uk, at the top of the page there is an area to help parents with this

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the eAdmissions website. It includes a logo with the letter 'e' and the word 'Admissions', followed by links for Home, Help, About, and Local Authority Details. On the right side, there are buttons for Register and Sign In. Below the navigation bar, there is a 'Back' link. The main heading is 'Frequently Asked Questions'. A search bar is present with the placeholder text 'Start typing to search'. Below the search bar, there is a paragraph of text: 'If your question is related to the application process or information about how your application will be dealt with, please contact your home Local Authority. Your Local Authority contact details are on the Local Authority details page.' This is followed by a bolded statement: 'The Service Desk is available between 8am - 6pm Monday to Friday, with the exception of Bank Holidays.' Another paragraph follows: 'If you have a problem with your account details or a technical enquiry relating to your account please click here.' Below this are five purple dropdown menus with white text and downward-pointing chevrons. The questions listed are: 'Usernames and passwords', 'I have registered to apply online but have not yet received an email', 'When I click on the link in the registration email it takes me to a general page on the eAdmissions site', 'Mobile phone validation', and 'I've changed my email address'.

I have moved. How do I let you have my new address?

You will need to send an email letting us have either your child's reference number or their name and date of birth. You will need to send through proof that you are living in the new property and confirmation that you have left the previous address. The proofs can be photographed and sent to us. The email address is esas@enfield.gov.uk. If your child is on the waiting list for a higher preference school the position will not alter until after 13 May 2024.

I have moved and I now live nearer to the school I wanted. When will my waiting list position change?

You will need to send through proof of your new address to us at esas@enfield.gov.uk. You also need to let us have proof you have left your previous address. All documents can be photographed and emailed to us. You will be able to find out your child's new waiting list position after 13 May 2023.

Will my child still be considered for my higher preference nursery classes if I accept the place you have offered?

You can accept the place your child has been offered and this will not affect their waiting list position for the other higher preference nursery class/es you have requested. You should also note that if you decline the place offered it will not improve your child's waiting list for any of the other nursery classes requested.

I have not applied yet and my child could start in a nursery class in the Autumn Term 2024, how can I apply?

You can make your application online at www.eadmissions.org.uk. You will need to send through proof of your address and your child's date of birth. These can be emailed to esas@enfield.gov.uk.

Where can I find information about the admission criteria for schools in Enfield?

Information about the admissions criteria for all schools in Enfield is published in the primary admissions booklet which can be viewed online Applying for a nursery school in Enfield - information for parents September 2024.

Schools which are their own admission authority will also publish their information on their own websites.

How can I find out if a 30-hour placement will be available at the nursery class I have been offered?

You will need to contact the school directly to ask about this.

How can I find out if my child will be attending for a morning or afternoon session?

The school will contact you directly about this, it is not a decision that is made by the local authority.
