This Order may be cited as the London Borough of Enfield, Public Spaces Protection Order Number 2 of 2021.

The London Borough of Enfield exercises its powers under Section 59, 64 and 72 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 ("the Act") and under all other enabling powers, hereby makes the following Order:

1. This Order shall come into operation on 4 February 2021 and shall have an effect for 3 years thereafter, unless extended by further Order under the Council's statutory powers.

3. The Council is satisfied that the conditions set out in Section 59 (2) of the Act have been met. Namely, that the following anti-social behaviour and criminal activities have been carried out within the designated area:

Participating in vehicle cruising activity as a passenger or driver of a vehicle, and/or congregating in the area to spectate cruising activity to include cars, motorbikes and mopeds or other vehicles

These activities have had a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality, and it is likely that the activities will be carried out within that area and have such an effect.

4. The Council is also satisfied that the conditions set out in Section 59 (3) of the Act have been met. Namely, that the effect or likely effect of the activities is, or is likely to be, of a persistent or continuing nature and that these activities are unreasonable and justify the restrictions imposed by this Order and that it is in all the circumstances expedient to make this Order for the purpose of reducing crime and/or anti-social behaviour in a public place.

AUTHORISED PERSONS:

An authorised person could be a Police Constable, Police Community Support Officer or Council Officer, and must be able to present their authority upon request.

In accordance with section 66 of the Act, any interested person who wishes to challenge the validity of this Order on the grounds that the Council did not have the power to make the Order or that a requirement under the Act has not been complied with may apply to the High Court within six weeks from the date upon which the Order is made.
