Simply email commercial@enfield.gov.uk to register your interest. Be sure to include a proposal outlining the details of your offering:

- Tell us about your business history and experience.
- Who is your event for? Whether it's tailored for children, families, or another demographic, let us know.
- What exciting experiences will you offer attendees? From inflatable fun to craft fairs, nature walks to movie nights, we're open to all ideas!
- Proposed Time of Operation.
- Pricing: How much will your tickets cost?
- Space Requirements: Do you have a location in mind, and how much space do you need? For instance, you may require 20 feet for a bouncy castle.
- Required Amenities: Do you need access to water or power? If so, how do you plan to acquire them?

We will review all proposals upon receipt.
