

---

Dear Enfield Council

It has been brought to my attention that you are considering major house building in our area. We noted that a consultation drop in session was scheduled for the last few days of August, now passed. I have not been made aware of these sessions. Can you please remedy this as a designated area SA32 is directly opposite my house and I would have a number of questions on your plan

Best regards