

---

I am extremely concerned about proposals to build housing on Enfield's Green belt, car parks and food stores.

Yes, people need homes but Enfield has already grown tremendously from the market town of old.

They will have to move elsewhere.