

---

I wish to object to the plan for new houses to be built in Hadley Wood:

1. I can see no reason to build on Green Belt land when sufficient Brownfield Sites can be found across Enfield.
2. It also partially in a Conservation Area which goes against all previous planning.
3. There is no infrastructure for this number of dwellings as difficult connections for shops (only one local small store) and the school is already full